SAU#19 is pleased to announce Dr. Jennifer Dolloff as the new Director of Special Education for the communities of Goffstown and New Boston effective July 1, 2018. Dr. Dolloff was appointed by the SAU Board on Tuesday, May 29, 2018 by a unanimous vote.

Superintendent Brian Balke shared, “Dr. Dolloff has extensive experience in special education in New Hampshire having served as a teacher, administrator, and consultant over the last 30 years. Jennifer is the consummate professional. She is a dynamic combination of intelligence, empathy, and leadership. I am exceptionally pleased that Dr. Dolloff will be joining our team to support our students, families, and schools.”

Dr. Dolloff brings a strong legal background and child-centered approach to this role in SAU 19. Previously, Dr. Dolloff served as the special education director in the cities of Manchester and Nashua. Dr. Dolloff spent 14 years working for the South East Regional Educational Services Center (SERESC) as part of the special education program approval team evaluating school district programs throughout New Hampshire. Dr. Dolloff began her career in education as a special education teacher in the Bedford School District.

SAU#19 School Board Chair Wendy Lambert shared, “The SAU#19 Board is pleased to welcome Dr. Jennifer Dolloff as the new Director of Special Education. The Board has great confidence that Dr. Dolloff will bring a child-centered approach to our schools and a profound commitment to supporting our special education students and their families.”
